PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

HOUSECALL PRO

2019-PRESENT

Senior Manager, Creative Operations

2026-PRESENT

Promoted to establish and lead Creative Operations across Housecall Pro's integrated marketing organization, creating the operational foundation supporting Brand, Product Marketing, Growth, Lifecycle Marketing, Partnerships, Community, Events, and Executive Communications.

- Built Housecall Pro's Creative Operations function, establishing intake, prioritization, resource planning, capacity management, and executive reporting systems that unified creative execution across seven marketing disciplines.
- Architected AI-powered workflows that reduced creative briefing from multiple days to approximately 30 minutes while significantly increasing campaign throughput and consistency.
- Partner with executive leadership to align organizational priorities, optimize resource allocation, remove operational bottlenecks, and improve visibility across high-impact marketing initiatives.
- Designed end-to-end creative operating systems spanning discovery, briefing, concept development, production, approvals, delivery, and performance optimization.
- Led cross-functional planning for enterprise initiatives including product launches, integrated campaigns, paid media, executive communications, customer marketing, and large-scale events.
- Developed operational reporting presented during Monthly Business Reviews (MBRs), providing executives with delivery forecasting, resource visibility, project health, and organizational risks.

Interim Creative Director

Provided executive leadership during organizational transition while maintaining creative output, operational continuity, and executive visibility.

- Directed delivery of nearly 200 paid creative assets across multiple campaign initiatives within approximately two weeks.
- Stabilized planning processes while rebuilding project prioritization, resource forecasting, and production visibility.
- Oversaw a $50K+ nationwide production initiative, coordinating contracts, legal review, vendors, logistics, budgets, scheduling, and production execution.
- Served as operational leader across Brand Design while supporting executive decision-making and organizational planning.

2019-PRESENT

Senior Manager, Multimedia

2024-2026

Built and scaled Housecall Pro's internal multimedia organization supporting every major marketing function.

- Directed integrated campaigns spanning product launches, customer storytelling, AI initiatives, paid acquisition, executive messaging, educational content, and national events.
- Established nationwide production systems capable of producing high-quality marketing content efficiently across multiple markets.
- Built repeatable creative processes that improved production speed, consistency, and collaboration across departments.
- Partnered closely with Product Marketing, Brand, Performance Marketing, Lifecycle Marketing, Community, and Executive Leadership to deliver strategic marketing initiatives.
- Led creative strategy and execution for flagship campaigns including Virtual Summit, customer stories, platform marketing, employer branding, and executive communications.

Manager, Multimedia

2022-2024

Promoted through multiple leadership roles after consistently expanding creative capabilities, operational maturity, and strategic impact across the organization.

- Grew internal multimedia capabilities from tactical production into a strategic marketing function.
- Introduced scalable production standards, creative planning frameworks, and vendor management processes.
- Mentored multidisciplinary creatives while establishing quality standards and collaborative workflows.

JC NAVARRO FILMS

2012-2019

Founder & Creative Director

Founded and led a creative consultancy delivering brand storytelling, fundraising campaigns, documentaries, and commercial productions for nonprofit organizations, churches, educational institutions, and businesses.

- Produced campaigns contributing to more than $950,000 in annual fundraising efforts.
- Led strategy, budgeting, creative direction, production, post-production, and client relationships from concept through delivery.
- Built the leadership, operational, and business foundation that later evolved into enterprise Creative Operations leadership.
